As a spectator, in addition to understanding and agreed to the CYO Youth Sports Standards for Spectator Behavior, I also am aware of and agree to the following:

- Verbally or physically mistreating an official will not be tolerated.
- Individuals who behave in an unsportsmanlike manner at any time during a CYO practice or athletic competition may be banned from attending CYO athletic practices or competitions for a period of time to be determined by the Office of Youth Ministry/CYO.
- Violations of a CYO imposed ban will result in game(s) being stopped and a forfeit awarded to the opposing team.
- Improper conduct of spectators at any CYO athletic contest may also result in sanctions to a team or to the athletic association of a team.
- Serious or repeated spectator problems with the same parish/school program will result in a hearing before the Director of CYO Programs.
- Spectators are not permitted to file complaints concerning the performance of game officials. Only the head coach may file the complaint.
- I will inform my spouse and other relatives that may be attending my child's contest of CYO spectator conduct expectations as outlined in the Youth Sports Standards for Spectator Behavior and this section.

First timers will need to complete this application. At the end of this registration process you will be given a username and password, KEEP THIS.
